

Check it out: Third Thursday Art Walk in South Sac Sacramento

Dixie Reid, July 15, 2009

Sacramento definitely is a city on the move, arts-wise. Joining the ever-popular Second Saturday gallery strolls is tomorrow's Third Thursday Art Walk - highlighting the artwork of South Sacramento youth. There also will be live music and hands-on art workshops.

It's 4-7 p.m. Thursday at Colonial Heights Library, 4799 Stockton Blvd., Sacramento (between 14th Avenue and Fruitridge Road).

According to a news release, "The kids in South Sac are trying to bring meaning and joy to their often-challenging lives." When surveyed three years ago, they said they wanted more art, music and dance in their lives.

Third Thursday Art Walk is funded in part by a Sierra Health Foundation REACH grant and Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Agency Drug-Free Communities Grant (the Office of National Drug Control Policy). The coalition is staffed and overseen by the Sacramento Mutual Housing Association.
