

New chairwoman for housing group

Mindy Romero has been appointed the new chairwoman of the board of directors Sacramento-Yolo Mutual Housing Association. She replaces Greg Chew, who remains on the board.

A researcher at the Center for Regional Change, UC Davis, Romero also is a doctoral candidate in the UCD Department of Sociology. Romero has been on the board for the past three years and was with Yolo Mutual Housing Association's board before the two nonprofits affiliated. She lives in Davis.

Mutual Housing develops and operates rental housing for modest-income households. The communities have 2,600 residents, half of whom are children.

Through Mutual Housing's focus on leadership, the nonprofit also provides training and mentoring as well as educational programs, community-building activities and services for residents and neighbors.
