

Mutual Housing hires Jauco as lead organizer

Sacramento/Yolo Mutual Housing Association recently hired Mariano Jauco as lead organizer. In his new position, Jauco will supervise six community organizers who work with two to three Mutual Housing properties in Sacramento and Yolo counties.

As well as being the management contact, he will provide coaching and training in building community across the many cultures and ethnicities of the diverse residents.

Prior to joining Mutual Housing, Jauco was the city of Sacramento's neighborhood resources coordinator where he was responsible for providing information and resources to community members. In this capacity, he also worked with neighborhood groups to improve the safety and residential quality of life.

Jauco is chairman of Pace e Bene Nonviolence Service and has worked with the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. He has served on the board of directors for the United Way of the East Bay, Tri-City Homeless Coalition and Renewed HOPE.

Jauco has a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from UC Davis and was certified as an ASQ Quality Engineer. He also has a master's degree in ministry from the Franciscan School of Theology, Berkeley.

For more information on housing, programs and services at Mutual Housing, go to <http://www.mutualhousing.com>.

Sacramento | Yolo
Mutual Housing
Association

Transforming Lives...Building Community

Sacramento Mutual Housing Association develops housing that is affordable to a diversity of households. Our housing builds strong and stable communities through resident participation and leadership development.

For more information, call (916) 453-8400 or visit our website at mutualhousing.com.