

“American Idol” Friday as South Sac students perform for prizes

Some of South Sacramento’s best student performers will be competing for cash prizes at Hiram Johnson High School Auditorium this Friday, May 27, from 4:30 to 7:00 p.m.

Produced by the South Sac Coalition for Future Leaders, there also will be an art show by local students.

“These student performers are really talented... well worth coming to see,” said Rachel Iskow, Executive Director of Sacramento|Yolo Mutual Housing Association, one of the SSCFL sponsors.

Hiram Johnson is located at 6879 14th Avenue, Sacramento. Admission is free.

The show producer, South Sacramento Youth Coalition for Future Leaders, is funded by a drug-free communities grant from SAMHSA. For more information, visit <http://www.samhsa.org>.

For more information, contact SSCFL Youth Coordinator Staphonya Cabrellis, (916) 200-9428.

Through Mutual Housing’s focus on leadership, the nonprofit also provides training and mentoring as well as educational programs, community-building activities and services for residents and neighbors.

For more information, visit <http://www.mutualhousing.com>

Sacramento | Yolo
Mutual Housing
Association

Transforming Lives...Building Community

Sacramento Mutual Housing Association develops housing that is affordable to a diversity of households. Our housing builds strong and stable communities through resident participation and leadership development.

For more information, call (916) 453-8400 or visit our website at mutualhousing.com.

South Sacramento youth perform at last year’s show