Mutual Housing hires Chin as operations manager

Ryan Chin recently was hired as operations manager by Sacramento/Yolo Mutual Housing Association. In that position, he will oversee human resources, risk management, contracts administration, computer networks and systems, and office management. He also will play an integral role in organizational development of the nonprofit and be a member of Mutual Housing's management team.

In the past, Chin was Sacramento State's publications' director. There, he managed the publications for the university, including the online version of Sac State Magazine as well as materials for the colleges and departments.

As an associate director of marketing at Stanford University, Chin promoted the Stanford University Center for Professional Development. He also worked as marketing manager for Ensim Corp. and was an operations officer for Wells Fargo Bank.

With a master's degree in business administration from the UC Davis in marketing and technology, Chin has worked in the field since graduating in 2000. He also was a member of the Sacramento County Policy Planning Commission.

Founded in 1988, Sacramento/Yolo Mutual Housing Association develops and operates rental housing — including projects in Davis — for modest-income households. The communities have 2,750 residents, half of whom are children.

Through Mutual Housing's focus on leadership, the nonprofit also provides training and mentoring as well as educational programs, community-building activities and services for residents and neighbors. For more information, visit <http://www.mutualhousing.com>.
