

Mutual Housing California hires director of asset management

Bryan Dove has been hired as Director of Asset Management for Mutual Housing California in Sacramento.

With more than 10 years experience developing affordable housing in California and Massachusetts, Dove will be responsible for planning and monitoring the operational and financial performance of Mutual Housing's affordable housing portfolio, benchmarking, investor and lender relationships and acquisition, refinancing and rehabilitation necessary to preserve the portfolio.

Before joining Mutual Housing, Dove owned his own investment and consulting business assisting non-profits and individual investors acquire, develop and manage affordable and work-force housing.

Dove has a M.S. in Urban Design and Planning from the University of Washington and a B.A. from the University of California, Irvine. Dove also has finished the Boston Marathon four times.

Founded in 1988, Mutual Housing California develops and operates well-designed rental housing for the diversity of the region's households. The Sacramento and Yolo county communities have 3,000 residents, nearly half of whom are children.

Mutual Housing also partners with other businesses, nonprofits and government agencies to provide computer training classes, tax assistance help, educational programs, community-building activities and services for residents and neighbors. For more information, visit www.mutualhousing.com.

Bryan Dove

Mutual Housing California develops housing that is affordable to a diversity of households. Our housing builds strong and stable communities through resident participation and leadership development. For more information, call (916) 453-8400 or visit our website at mutualhousing.com.