

Julie Goldfine hired as Mutual Housing California chief financial officer

Julie Goldfine was hired as Mutual Housing California Chief Financial Officer.

She will be responsible for overseeing accounting, asset management and information technology for the Sacramento-based nonprofit. Prior to joining Mutual Housing, Goldfine worked for St. Anton Partners, LLC, for eight years as the company's Chief Financial Officer/Chief Operating Officer where she ran the day to day operations for accounting, human resources and administration.

Obtaining her CPA license in 1998, she started her career in public accounting and, also working with private and nonprofit organizations, now has 20 years of progressive financial accounting experience.

Goldfine spent half of her career in the tax credit industry, working on bond financing, loan conversions, cost certifications and evaluating the financial feasibility of Section 42 tax credit projects.

Goldfine has a Bachelor of Accountancy from the University of San Diego.

Mutual Housing California develops, operates and advocates for sustainable housing that builds strong communities through resident participation and leadership development.

Founded in 1988, Mutual Housing communities have nearly 3,000 residents, nearly half of whom are children.
