

Mutual Housing Management hires Johnson and Kitcher as portfolio supervisors

Mutual Housing Management has hired Vincent Johnson and Jessica Kitcher as Portfolio Supervisors.

They will be responsible for monitoring and directing management-related activities of site-level personnel at Mutual Housing California communities in Sacramento and Davis.

With more than 10 years in the housing rental industry and more than three years in manufactured/mobile home and recreational vehicle industry, Johnson will oversee two communities in Sacramento and five in Davis.

With more than a decade of experience in on-site management, rehab construction, new construction and supervising multiple properties, Kitcher will oversee eight communities in Sacramento.

Both have a strong background in local, state, and federal laws governing public housing and other subsidized housing programs.

Johnson has worked with the chronically homeless, mentally ill and those with physical illnesses.

Johnson also coaches men who are battling addictions and people who are in debt.

Johnson has a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from William Jessup University.

Kircher has worked with Tax Credits, SHRA, HUD, Bond, HOME funds and USDA Rural Development.

Kitcher became a national compliance executive through Housing Credit College in 2003 and in 2009 was certified as a specialist in housing credit management through the National Affordable Housing Management Association.

Mutual Housing Management is the property management division of Mutual Housing California.

Mutual Housing California develops, operates and advocates for sustainable housing that builds strong communities through resident participation and leadership development.

Founded in 1988, the Sacramento-based nonprofit is home to nearly 3,000 residents, almost half of whom are children.
